STATEMENT

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

RSPO Mass Balance - Equivalence

Following the certification of the SEDERMA site according to the RSPO Supply Chain Certification Standard, the reference and the code of the product JUVINITY™ have been modified to propose a RSPO Mass Balance version (MBAL).

- No change of the product

The quality of the raw materials used has not changed. The Mass Balance grade guarantees that the product is made from ingredients sourced according to the requirements of the certification model and that Sederma is controlled accordingly.

- No change in the manufacturing process

- No change in Specifications

SEDERMA confirms that these two references are equivalent. The toxicological data, the results of the efficacy tests as well as the marketing and regulatory documentation of the product JUVINITY™ remain applicable to the new reference.
